Recruitment of Future Therapy Dog Teams:
Every volunteer and their companion dogs undergo orientation, mentoring and must pass a rigorous evaluation by professional dog evaluators to ensure we serve our visitors in a safe and effective way. Facilities are then assessed and guided before placements to ensure a successful environment for animal visits.

Legacy Giving
A legacy gift to Ottawa Therapy Dogs is a way to leave a lasting impact in the community you care about. Your compassion will help ensure we can continue to provide comfort and relief to vulnerable individuals for years to come. Your assets will help support:

Community Impact:
Our teams perform critical roles in various programs. Whether it's a child bravely facing cancer treatment, a student struggling with reading, or a senior recovering from a stroke, OTD's therapy dogs and their handlers work closely with healthcare, social services and educational teams to provide invaluable comfort and care to people in need of support.

Legacy Giving
The most common form of a legacy gift is through a bequest in your will. Other possible legacy gifts include: RRSP/RRIF Funds, a gift of life insurance, gifts of stocks or securities. Below is our official organization name and Charitable Registration Number for use when referencing OTD in your gift.
